

HEART CHECK & PRAYER

In Amos 9

"Though they are driven into exile by their enemies,
there I will command the sword to slay them.
'I will keep My eye on them for harm and not for good.'"

AMOS 9:4

EXAMINE YOUR HEART

- ✓ Am I mistaking God's patience for His approval?
- ✓ Do I take God's warnings seriously, or dismiss His discipline?
- ✓ When life gets shaken, do I trust that God is still in control?
- ✓ Am I living in hope of God's restoration, or in fear of the future?
- ✓ Am I seeking to be part of His remnant—faithful, chosen, and used for His purposes?
- ✓ How can I be a seed of restoration in my family, church, and community?

TRUTH TO REMEMBER

- God's judgment is certain – No one can escape His righteous judgment (Amos 9:4).
- God's judgment is purposeful – He sifts and shakes the nations, but He preserves what is His (Amos 9:8–10).
- God restores His promises – He will raise up David's fallen shelter and reign again (Amos 9:11).
- God's heart reaches the nations – All who are called by His name are included in His plan (Amos 9:12).
- God brings abundance and renewal – Ruins are rebuilt, captives restored, and blessing overflows (Amos 9:13–14).
- God plants His people securely – They will never again be uprooted from the land He gives them (Amos 9:15).

PRAYER

Lord,

You are holy, just, and faithful.
You cannot be mocked, and You do not ignore sin.
Thank You that You see everything and will bring what is right to pass.
Forgive me for the times I have taken Your patience for granted or hardened my heart toward Your warnings.
When life is shaken, help me trust You completely.
Teach me to hope in Your restoration, not fear the future.

Raise up what is broken in me
and in the places You have called me to.
Use me as part of Your faithful remnant—a living seed of restoration.

May Your kingdom come, Your will be done,
and Your name be honored among all nations.
Help me trust Your promises today and walk in the hope of what You will do.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

PROMISE TO HOLD ON TO

*"In that day I will raise up the fallen booth of David,
and repair its breaches, and raise up its ruins,
and rebuild it as in the days of old."*

AMOS 9:11

A FINAL ENCOURAGEMENT
